v.

MICHAEL J. MOLLER

ORDER

OCTOBER 30, 2012

BOWLER, U.S.M.J.

In reconsideration of this court's October 3, 2012 Order, the United States Marshals Service ("USMS") is directed to ensure that the defendant receives an assessment of his medical conditions and the appropriate treatment. In the event the USMS is unable to secure such an assessment and followup treatment, if necessary, the USMS should relocate the defendant to an appropriate facility to provide care deemed medically necessary. The USMS is not required to relocate the defendant to a Bureau of Prisons facility.
